I. Updates

- A. Laura sent FP PPT to Promotoras (Spanish-speaking community outreach) trainer at Esperanza Housing Project for use in their education program and is working on Spanish translation of FP PPT for consumers
- B. Annual capacity-building conference for Promotoras in first week of December with ~700-800 attendees has call out for presentations in Spanish or English with translator. Could to do service provider training PPT and provide state-wide info.
  - TO DO: Adama to send conference details to Emily/Anna
- C. ASA put out a call for abstracts for their 2012 conference; will submit abstract on the Falling Monologues and theater as an educational approach
  - TO DO: All to email Emily/Anna if you plan to attend ASA 2012
  - TO DO: Carol to do literature review on theatre and learning
- D. Adama recommended FPC-LA do service provider training PPT at CA Orientation and Mobility Specialists (CAOMS) conference in November (O & M specialists do home assessments)
  - TO DO: Adama to send details on CAOMS conference to Emily/Anna

II. FPAW

- A. Placemats
  - Add medicine bottle image and reduce wordiness
  - TO DO: Emily/Anna to email placemat to Coalition, Brad Williams
  - TO DO: All assist in streamlining placemat
- B. Buttons
  - Reviewed updated button designs and older adult volunteer feedback
  - Selected top three designs to further refine; will choose 2 and order

III. Community Programs – FP Resource Packet

- A. TO DO: Emily/Anna to compile list of resources by category, create Resource Packet mock-up and send to selected organizations for feedback
- B. TO DO: Emily/Anna to contact Judy Stevens re: CDC self-assessment tool

IV. Community Programs – Don't Fall for It: Falling Monologues and Resource Fair

- A. June 29, 2011, 9 – 11am at ONEgeneration Senior Enrichment Center, 18255 Victory Blvd., Reseda, CA 91335 with FP presentations and information tables
- B. TO DO: Emily/Anna to confirm with Aging Well in LA producer that FPC-LA will receive video of monologues, and whether in segments or grouped

V. Service Provider Training – How to tailor presentation to various groups

- A. At beginning, ask service providers how they can incorporate FP into their work
- B. At end, ask again - it may inspire and give ideas to other attendees
- C. TO DO: Emily/Anna to create two versions of PPT: 1 hour and 30 minute
- D. TO DO: Emily/Anna to create or identify existing 1 page resource list for distribution at training

Next Meeting: Wednesday, July 20 @ 10 am at the California Endowment
